WHAT'S UPCOMING EVENT?

"Essential wardrobe of 2021"

A new trend emerged on a lot of shopping sites this year—shrug sweaters (aka arm warmers). Although this new snug fit appeared in 2019, it didn't garner that much attention. At the end of 2020, the trend resurfaced, and we certainly think it will remain in 2021. If you're the experimental kind, this trend is for you. Layer it over a slip dress or a spaghetti top with joggers, and you're good to go.

*Taipei fashion week

Taipei Fashion week inherited the main axis of last year's sustainable fashion. The show invited Claudia.W, DYCTEAM, Just in XX, opLiq, Weavism and #Damur, and other 6 designer brands.

*Taiwan to hold first solo exhibition by Yoshitomo Nara

Exhibition is scheduled to open in Taipei on March 12 by Japanese artist Yoshitomo Nara
